This issue considers the relationship between cinema and photography.

C PHOTO MAKING MOVIES presents a visual outline of two related, yet unmistakably different media: cinema and photography. By including artists from both media, C PHOTO MAKING MOVIES attempts to convey the influence that the motion picture has had on photography on conceptual and aesthetic levels, as well as the way photography has continued to resonate through cinema.

Essays by Will Self, David Company, Aveek Sen. Interview to Jonas Mekas and Michael Hoppen. Archive from Magnum Photos. Photographies by Joel Coen, Martin Scorsese, Robert Altman, Victor Fleming, Gus Van Sant, Hiroshi Sugimoto, Christopher Doyle, David Lynch, Jeff Wall, Carl Theodor Dreyer, Jonas Mekas, Pedro Almodovar, Alexander Gronsky, Alfonso Zubiaga, among others.
