It is very interesting to see how graphic design and fashion relate. How one depends on the other and how they complement each other perfectly. This book contains a selection of brand and branding work, providing an insight into graphic design's contribution to the fashion world. It demonstrates how the sectors harmoniously unite to create a brand and fashion image.

Innovate and reinvent the existing architecture to adapt it to the climate change that is suffering our environment, and solving the problems of living space that generates the movement of people is one of the concerns of the authorities of the planet. The land for construction of new buildings is increasingly scarce and therefore seeks the rehabilitation, renovation or conversion of existing buildings into new and more sustainable, greener, ultimately more environmentally friendly..

The design of public and private spaces is becoming increasingly important for the development and welfare of the population. Landscape architects are concerned about the way it makes use of these places, because their designs and ideas can bring to towns and cities a unique identity to help stimulate the local economy and enhance the history and culture of a community.
